

IN HONOR OF THE LIFE AND WORK OF GERDA BOYESEN,
the founder of Biodynamic Psychology and Psychotherapy, BODY PSYCHOTHERAPY PUBLICATIONS

presents a fairly definitive collection of articles about Biodynamic Psychology, Massage and Psychotherapy that have been published in English over the last 40 years.

This collection is almost 'Biblical' in proportion and the volume contains:

- 150 articles from about 50 different authors;
- 1,550 pages in volume;
- about 850,000 words;
- a number of pictures and diagrams from the original articles and others that were published alongside these articles.

The volume demonstrates – from a number of different perspectives – how Gerda Boyesen's approach and the various Biodynamic techniques can be used in a very empathic and gentle form of Body Psychotherapy and incorporated into other Body Psychotherapy methods.
